SENATOR SEARCEY ASTOUNDS SOLONS BY TAX EXPOSE

Failure to Assess Cook Co. Property Costs the State $5,000,000 Annually

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 18: Senator Earl B. Searcey today astounded the upper house in the special tax session called by Governor Emerson by a series of remarkable revelations concerning the tax situation in Cook County.

Placing a wholly new construction upon the Revenue Relief Special Session, Senator Searcey declared that the time has come when it is imperative that the relief of Cook County be recognized as of itself incidental; that the real question at issue is the welfare and solvency of the State of Illinois.

Solution of the tax problem of Cook County is not sought merely for the benefit of that county," declared Senator Searcey. "In all friendliness to Cook County I declare that relief for the people in secondary importance of Illinois which in this crisis pertains to safety and honor of the state be effected only by relieving the plight of Cook County."

Senator Searcey read three statements each derived from official records. The first statement shows that at the present time Cook County owes the State Treasury the sum of $23,000,000; that in the near future the 1931 taxes will be due, increasing the above amount by approximately $10,000,000, making a gross total of $43,000,000.

"Unless adequate provisions are made for the revenue from Cook County now," said Senator Searcey, "the state of Illinois will be reduced to dire straits, and be faced with bond defaults, the serious impairment of governmental service, and possibly even debt repudiation."

Continuing with the second statement, Senator Searcey showed that on the basis of reliable estimates by Federal Income Tax officials, Cook County paid $191,000,000 of the $223,000 Federal income taxes for the state of Illinois in 1929, more than 57 percent of the total.

"We have reached a point where income must be taken as a measure of taxation," said Senator Searcey. "At the present time Cook County is supposed to contribute approximately one-half of the cost of state operation."

On the basis of Federal income tax payments, Cook County would pay 37 percent of the cost.

"Yet as matters now stand, when the State is presumed to receive one-half of the revenue from Cook County, from the general property tax, that county is in near arrears to the extent of approximately $41,000,000. And the people of Cook County are suffering from the same defect that causes his unpaid debt to the state."

Senator Searcey then presented a third statement, based upon the official records of the State Tax Commission. This statement clearly indicates that less than one-third of the taxable wealth of Cook County is placed upon the assessment rolls.

Proceeding, the statement shows that through failure to assess personal property in Cook County, every other county in the state is penalized and forced to pay an unjust excess to a total of more than $5,000,000 annually. And for the same reason, thousands of people in Cook County are suffering hardship and even privation.

"It is obvious," said Senator Searcey, "that the mal-administration of the tax machinery of Cook County has caused perilously close approach to insolvency. Actual financial bankruptcy of Cook County, a government agency, accompanied by acute distress and grief to tens of thousands of her citizens."

Next - and more desperately serious in its threatened consequences, there is now a likelihood - a certainty unless vigorous steps are taken by this special session of involving every county in the state and every citizen in the debacle.

"Not since the Civil War have we faced a crisis so serious or a problem so grave. Year after year we of the Illinois legislature have supported the make-over programs of the self constituted leadership of Cook County, which now culminates in threat of disaster without comparison in the history of the state."

"Now the members of the Senate and the House of Representatives must assume the responsibility of the damage already done during the future. Obviously going to be an unpleasant task if a remedy is provided adequately the needs will be imposed upon the elected representatives."

Who Wants a Board of Assessors?

Senator Earl B. Searcey's statement that "the mal-administration of the tax machinery of Cook County" is forcing every other county in the state to be penalized and forced to pay an unjust excess to a total of more than $5,000,000 annually, is astounding to say the least.

Although Senator Searcey did not say so, it is believed that blame for the deplorable condition can be laid squarely at the door of the Cook county board of assessors, which recently was subjected to fire by witnesses called in County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki's court in the taxpayers suit to have personal property rolls for 1928 and 1929 declared illegal and void.

FEW TELEPHONES IN COOK

"Comparison of assessed valuation figures for various counties reveals some startling facts: Winnebago has 118,304 population, about one-twentieth as large as Cook county, yet Winnebago county has eight times as much value in telephone and telegraph companies as has Cook county, according to its assessors books. Winnebago county is also shown to have twice the assessed valuation of Cook county in billiard tables.

CHICAGO SHY ON STEAMBOATS

On the matter of steamboats, for instance, Alexander county, with only one-two-hundredths the population of Cook county, had seven times more value in steamboats on its assessment rolls for 1928 than Cook county.

Alexander's population is 22,543 as compared to Cook's 3,972,529; its assessment on steamboats is $10,385, while Cook's is only $6,973.

As to property of saloons and eating houses, Madison county, with a population of 143,132, has $392,760 on its tax rolls; Cook, with nearly 4,000,000 persons, values this property at only $11,180.

WHO WANTS COUNTY BOARD OF ASSESSORS?

In view of the mal-administration of the Cook county board of assessors, which costs other counties of the state $5,000,000 annually, what taxpayers will look with favor upon the proposed legislation at Springfield to abolish the office of township assessor and create in its stead a board of assessors for the several counties?

This idea is presumed (and that's putting it mildly) to have originated in Lake county after Assessor Russ Alford had placed fair and just valuations upon utility properties in Waukegan Township. Designing politicians, like hungry lions who have had their first taste of red meat, plan to get Alford by inflicting upon the entire state a system of assessing that would be more susceptible to the meddling fingers of selfish and dishonest racketeers—a system which has proved too disastrous in Cook county and the results of which, according to Senator Searcey, threaten to reduce the entire state to dire straits.

To prevent the passage of such a vicious measure, which threatens to remove further from the people their right of taxing power and place it in the hands of moneyed interests, it is the duty of every taxpayer and every township assessor in the state to call upon their representatives and senators in Springfield to vote against any proposal to tamper with the down-state's present system of assessing taxable property.

A resolution, unquestionably of Lake county authorship, was passed by the Illinois association of county officers at the annual convention in August, to have introduced in the General Assembly a bill to abolish the office of township assessor, and the proposal is given consideration in Governor Emerson's call for the present special session of the legislature in these words: "Complete re-organization of the present tax assessing and collecting machinery."

Lives of the people. Our responsibility is to the state. Cook County must have relief, but that relief must be subordinate and incidental to the safeguarding of the interests of the State of Illinois.

Expenses must be curtailed. Revenue sources must be found to make certain the payments of accumulated

Failure or neglect on the part of the Cook county board of assessors to assess a large amount of personal property has cost Lake county an excess of $151,344.00 and the 8th senatorial district, Lake, McHenry and Boone counties, in excess of $245,614.00, according to a report submitted by Senator Searcey.

In view of the mal-administration of the Cook county board of assessors, it is believed by leaders here that Eighth district legislators will be urged to vote against any proposed measure to abolish the office of township assessor and to create in its stead a board of assessors similar to that of Cook county which has operated to the detriment of other Illinois counties.

Obligations without default and sufficient to guarantee the preservation of our institutions.

The revenue provisions of our State Constitution are antiquated. But it is our Constitution, and provisions must be made for raising revenue under existing constitutional provisions.

If this means a state income tax, let it be done. If it means a sales tax, very well. And if it means the faithful administration of constitutional provisions in the taxation of personal property, then personal property must be compelled to pay taxes.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Once more people of the United States have been called upon their president to observe the last Thursday in November as the day on which to give thanks for the manifold blessings we have been vouchsafed.

Thanksgiving is one of the few days which is celebrated as a holiday in every part of the United States. Of New England origin dating back to the days of the Plymouth colony more than three hundred years ago, its appropriateness has appealed to all America.

We of this country have been more abundantly blessed than have the people of any other nation in the world. We may grumble at the hard times and point out the inequalities as between man and man, and think we are pretty badly off, but we must remember that by comparison with any other part of the world and especially at the time of a depression such as we are now experiencing, we are exceedingly well off. And then, too, the inequalities which divide our people into the successful and the unsuccessful are far less marked than the inequalities which exist elsewhere between the upper and lower classes.

The Pilgrim Fathers gave thanks to God on Thanksgiving Day for material blessings with which their physical condition had been ameliorated. Today most of us are taking all of the credit for material progress to ourselves. Few today rely upon Divine Providence to take care of them, in spite of the express promise "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His Righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you".

Our faith is less simple than that of our forebears. We do not look for direct and instantaneous answer to prayer. But deep in our hearts we, as a people, still believe that somehow if each does his individual best to live up to the spirit of religion, he will not suffer for lack of food and shelter and the normal comforts of life.

This particular Thanksgiving Day of 1931 seems to be one upon which the origin of the occasion should be kept in mind. We have been thru a hard year. And in spite of all the optimism we try to show we are not "out of the woods" yet so far as material prosperity is concerned. But we have lost nothing which counts if we have not lost faith in ourselves, in our neighbors, and in our Nation. So long as we hold to the faith and continue to believe that something higher than human power is still guiding us, we have every cause to be thankful.

COOLED HOMES COMING

The American Gas Association predicts that within five years the better class of American homes will be cooled in summer as they are now heated in winter.

Negotiations are now underway to arrange for the manufacture on a large scale of gas operated summer air conditioning equipment. Four residences in localities of varying climates were cooled with gas this summer as part of the association's research program.

This is a real domestic progress. Fifty years ago, had anyone suggested that gas would soon be used as a cooling and refrigerating agency, he would have been regarded as mentally deficient. Today it is a proven fact.

LIFE INSURANCE AND THE DEPRESSION

Conditions of the past two years affected insurance companies less than other businesses.

"This," says the Insurance Field, "shows that the public is looking out for itself and knows where to look." Last year, the field goes on to say, the life insurance companies alone "invested some seven billion dollars in the welfare of the country."

It is undoubtedly true that in times of stress hundreds of thousands of persons turn to life insurance as a financial haven for their savings. They are aware that its security is only second to that of the government. They know that its policies, unlike stocks, never depreciate; that there will be no calls for more margin or larger payments; that borrowing and cash value privileges are unimpaired; that in fifty years no policy holder of legal reserve life policy has lost. To those who have seen the bottom fall out of apparently sound security investments of a life insurance policy looks like a pretty good thing.

As a matter of fact, the life insurance pays about twice as much to living policy holders as it pays in settlement of death claims each year. A policy is the protection for dependents par excellence. And it is likewise an investment of the first calibre. It may not give us twenty per cent. dividends—but it gives what is far more vital than that—security, safety, stability.

CHEAPER TO PREVENT ACCIDENTS

W. H. Cameron, managing director of the National Safety Council, recently pointed out that the strength of the organized safety movement in the United States lies in the fact that "it is cheaper to prevent an accident than to pay for it".

As a rule we look on an accident prevention activity as being a humanitarian work—as a saver of lives. And that, of course, is the first need. But it likewise pays for itself, time and again, in plain dollars and cents.

The safe establishment, as the records of hundreds of great industries of all kinds can show, is the efficient and profitable one. It is the one where morale of workers is the highest, and where they are most contented. It is the one where unit costs of production are lowest. Every accident, no matter how small, extracts a direct financial toll—in lost time, in interruption of a job, in medical and legal attention, in insurance compensation. Added to the are the "hidden costs" of accidents which are shown to be even far greater than these apparent costs.

Accident prevention, in short, is the best kind of business. It is time every industry, whether it has two employees or thousands, realized this, and realized, as well, that a large percentage of accidents are easily preventable. Industry has made a fine record in recent years in reducing both the frequency and severity of accidents each year should see this record bettered.

The American Gas Association predicts that within five years the better class of American homes will be cooled in summer as they are now heated in winter.

Negotiations are now underway to arrange for the

CHURCH OKES BOXING TOURNEY

Huge Stadium Card Dec.
4 Seen As Means to Combat False
Standards.

CHICAGO.—Boxing, as a means for combating the influences of present-day indifference, and the false standards of soft living and easy money as reflected by modern literature and other sources glorifying the gang leader and social outlaws, has been formally endorsed here by the Catholic Youth Organization, as part of its social service program.

The occasion marks the first time that any accredited Catholic organization in this country has adopted boxing as a group function, with full permission of Church authorities. This was pointed out today, by Rev. Gerald P. Scanlon, director of the Catholic Youth Organization, under whose auspices a monster amateur boxing tournament will reach its climax with finals and semi-final bouts in the Chicago Stadium on the night of December 4.

A total of 1,612 boys, representing 403 parishes in the six counties of Cook, Lake, Will, Grundy, Du Page and Kane, have been entered for the tourney, which is classed by sporting authorities as the biggest and most spectacular athletic demonstration ever staged in the Middle West.

Section and district preliminary and quarter-final bouts are now being held throughout the archdiocese in such cities as Chicago Heights, Blue Island, Joliet, Dawvers Grove, Berwyn and Waukegan.

Cardinal Mundelein and Bishop H. J. Shill have lent their unqualified consent and approval to the tournament which is being watched throughout the entire Catholic world with intense interest, because it marks a unique experiment in the training and molding of youth.

As explained by Father Scanlon, the Catholic Youth Organization proposes to elevate boxing to a high moral and social plane as a fitting means for developing self-restraint, courage and manly qualities among modern young men.

Banker Watches Reserve

The banker is constantly watching his reserve and has to adjust the rate of interest with respect thereto. One way to get rid of a pile of money to the reserve is to lower the rate of interest, and one way to protect a depleted reserve is to increase the rate of interest.

National Rainfall

The winter rainfall on the Pacific coast is associated with the migration toward the equator of the cyclone storm belt of the prevailing westerlies, with the advance of autumn and winter, and the poleward migration of this same belt in spring and summer. During summer the coast is dominated by the high pressure belt of the North Pacific, with generally clear skies and conditions unfavorable to rainfall.

Longest English Word

What is the longest word in the English language? Some say "honorificabilitudinitatibus" — perhaps because Shakespeare used it. Others "antidisestablishmentarianism." But Dr. F. N. H. Vizetelly, well known lexicographer—and he ought to know—gives the answer as: "Unhypersynmetriacantharicoleiopedealismionographically," a word of sixty letters, that is used, but only rarely, in mathematics.—Kansas City Star.

Interesting Letters

A woman, known for her interesting letters, keeps a clippings folder in her desk into which she slips all kinds of tidbits from newspapers and things friends tell her, filing them under the initial of the friend she thinks they will interest. When she starts writing letters, she looks under the initials and gets out all these tidbits which she often has forgotten.

Superstitions That Live

In the Dark ages every custom was endowed with miraculous powers, and such beliefs still hold. The people encountered on the way to church or the place of baptism are supposed to have a superstitious significance, for example. Thus a beggar encountered means ill luck, and the bad luck may be checked by handing the beggar a lucky-penny. A black cat encountered is the happiest of omens.

Discovery of America

Icelandic tradition differs as to the first discovery of the mainland North America. According to the Saga of Eric the Red Amerigo discovered by Leif Erikson about the year 1000. The tale of the Greenlanders, however, sacrifice the discovery to Bjarni Herjolfsson at an earlier date—perhaps about 887 A. D. Critics regard the Saga of Eric the Red as the better authority, although the tale of the Greenlanders is used to complete the story.

Think It Over

Taxpayers' Questions

When will the aldermen start action to recover from a marine contractor "extras" paid for work included in his contract?

What taxpayer knows what became of two competing concerns that got the "extras" gravy during the commission rule?

If taxpayers pay aldermen and a corporation council, should they not as good hired men do something about recovering into the public till the $1200 yearly paid each late commissioner as an extra for the local improvement side line?

Where is the $20,000 reputed to have been taken from the water fund to buy a city hall property after the voters put thumbs down on the late commission and when will it come back to that fund to lower water rates?

What taxpayer will longer waste coin on a local press that claimed the audit revealed nothing sensational after reading the audit in the taxpayer's journal?

An alderman with aspirations claims he thinks the audit "too technical" for the boor taxpayers to read in a publication, just what will these simp taxpayers do when voting at the next election?

What will the militant taxpayers do when some of the supervisors spring their trap to fire and rehire a highway engineer at a larger salary than the one that gave him $7500 in legal disbursements?

If the supervisor poormaster must stretch his poor funds to go around does he not sympathize with the poor taxpayer who must continually pinch and save to raise funds for the illegally paid highway engineer and supervisor inspector of a Court House?

Will some late commissioner tell the taxpayers how it was that never a cent was repaid to the "petty cash" after a touch for a trip which just exactly every penny which made a fine politician's gues?

What taxpayer knows how much school athletics cost in hard earned coin of dad and what is the real return on the investment?

Was $1,100 of taxpayers coin allowed at the last "secret" meeting of the executive committee of a high school Board and for what?

If the continuation school costs around $10,000 per year and about the same work is somewhat duplicated in the night school, why continue both?

How many autos are owned and operated at the taxpayers expense for school, policemen, purchasing agents, athletes, jailors and what have you?

After a real audit of municipal accounts for four years, would any honest taxpayer begrudge good coin for a real audit of schools and county, if the "petty cash" with no supporting evidence showed up?

If school kids need excuse why use taxpayers coin for a bus, gas and operator to get them from school a few blocks to the exercise field?

How many taxpayers really enjoy reading about how the late commissioners bought indoor balls, elm trees and astors for what, and paid for feed of Chicago police, to say little about paying a son to inspect dairy herds while buying ginger ale for the tuckmen?

When milk stays at 13 cents per quart, should the taxpayers really kick if the ginger ale for the tuckmen cost only five cents?

One taxpayer wants to know what a municipal policeman really knows about a cow anyway when the facture must be turned out to get the cream?

How much does milk cost taxpayers in excess of 13 cents, if a policeman must be paid to watch the water wagon?

A taxpayer wants to know what the "I. O. U. for $15" was for in the audit?

Will any sage alderman who understands the audit dare to suggest a bond issue to anybody for any purpose?

A tax depositor wants to know who will get the most out of the unemployed drive when the busted bankers defeated politicians and salaried depositors line up for a hand out?

Now that the civic leaders have put across a dandy drive for those whom the factories cannot employ this winter, why not join with the taxpayers who have long advocated lower prices for 12-cent mill, 5-cent electric current, $1.35 gas and 7 cent car fares?

Just Taxes Will Thwart Cut in Teachers' Pay, Stripe Declares

Advise Investigation of Reduction of Public Service Valuations

By R. H. STRIPE
Ex-President Waukegan Taxpayers Association

The writer of this article was greatly concerned with the ribbon headline in the Waukegan Daily Times on Monday, November 16, 1931, which read "Teachers' Salaries to Be Slashed". It may be possible that a few of the teachers earning the larger salaries might be willing for a short time to accept a reasonable reduction but the rank and file of the teachers of Waukegan should not be compelled to submit to a reduction, especially when they have to pay a penalty at the present time through anticipation warrants and are also called upon to donate towards charity in no small measure.

Waukegan ranks high in its educational work and we cannot afford to ignore this because of its far-reaching influence. Therefore every effort should be used to prevent a reduction of the teacher's pay, that is the large majority of the teachers.

This situation can be prevented if fair taxes are paid by some of the large corporations.

Sometime ago the great Public Service Corporation and its subsidiaries or connections issued an annual statement to their stockholders and in this statement placed a valuation on their Waukegan property of more than $22,000,000.

The Assessor for Waukegan, after carefully studying the situation, concluded that the assessed valuation of these properties which are great money earning institutions, could be increased to a rate of about one-half of what the small home owner is compelled to pay, sometimes on a greatly inflated value; the small home owner who in the aggregate is the largest consumer of the Public Service products.

For some unknown reason, which ought to be investigated, the Board of Review made a drastic reduction of this assessment of more than a million dollars. The amount would produce taxes of approximately $75,000 for the benefit of Waukegan in all of its taxing bodies and also the entire County of Lake.

Taxpayers are puzzled to know why the Board of Review should make such a large reduction of this assessment. It may be of interest to the taxpayers to know that the chairman of the Board of Review is William Obee, who is also chairman of the Board of Supervisors and that the secretary of the Board of Review is Bob Pearall, retired Waukegan City Commissioner.

I believe that if it were possible to secure a committee to have a heart to heart talk with Mr. Insull, the head of the great Public Service Corporations, in connection with this unfair reduction of assessment, that Mr. Insull, who is a man of great fatherly love for his taxpayer customers and who feels a full appreciation of their value to him and the importance of their well-being, that he would lend a listening ear. And if my judgment is correct, he would concede that the City of Waukegan should have the just tax support from the Public Service organization in order to help pay these teachers the salaries they are justly entitled to as well as relieving some of the other municipal tax burdens.

The chi-fashened banker always looked for a plan of collection the time he was making a loan. He did not make loans for capital purposes. He understood his duty was to finance the current movement of goods. He did not believe in a standard in handling loans to himself and to his directors different from that used in making loans to others. He did not believe in permitting directors to borrow at his institution at a time when he knew the same directors were borrowing elsewhere and giving collateral. If he loaned his directors on collateral he made sure that he called on them for additional margin when it was necessary the same as he did upon other customers. He was not forming a holding company or other corporations and selling stock to his customers. What does such a New York message mean to Lake county taxpayers?

Does it not appear from the celebrated municipal audit that almost anybody who could write or make a cross in the city hall was in on the "petty cash" for things of course that are "too technical for the taxpayers to understand" even if published?

Mr. Stripe, in communicating for the taxpayers to the State of Illinois stated that this bulkhead is at least twenty-

TAXPAYERS BACK PETERSON IN SHORE ACCRETIONS CASE

Will Not Sanction Roadway Over "Made" Land Leaders Admit

After being twice defeated by the militant organized taxpayers, the protagonists for the Lake Shore drive in Waukegan are trying to have the Aldermanic Council negotiate for an extension of the option under which they hope the city may eventually buy the remainder of the right of way from the coke plant north to the Darlington Road extended to Lake Michigan.

Reports are current that the railroad officials oppose a five year extension because they say the taxpayers will not sanction the construction of the roadway and the leaders of the militant taxpayers admit that is a fact.

It is reported that the coke plant and the railway will demand that the city return to them the riparian rights bought by the city from the coke plant and the motor plant; however, it is claimed that Mayor Peterson is opposed to giving up any riparian rights.

The militant taxpayers are said to claim that the shore owners have lost their riparian rights because a bulkhead was put into the submerged soil of Lake Michigan from the filtration plant northward to the North end of the proposed shore drive and the net result is said to be that the bulkhead, being an artificial means of creating accretions, then all accretions to the east of the bulkhead belong to the State of Illinois in trust for the people; also, some claim that the place where the city bought from the coke and motor plants for the present drive along the east side of these plants is the property of the State. In trust for the people because a bulkhead was put in the submerged soil and then a fill was made to what would otherwise be submerged soil of Lake Michigan just like the places north of the north end of the present drive in front of the coke plant.

It is said that the United States and the State of Illinois have much detailed information in regard to the physical conditions existing at all times before, during and after the bulkheads were put in and the fills made from time to time west of these bulkheads; consequently, the militant taxpayers claim the matters are not as simple as the protagonists for the drive pretend. These organized taxpayers point to the decision of the Attorney General in the Illinois Attorney General's opinions for 1929, on pages 164 to 162, where Oscar Carlson on September 30, 1930, in opinion No. 2178 to the head of the department of purchases and construction of Illinois referred to the contents of the Waukegan Taxpayers Association and among other things stated, "the State holds title to lands under the waters of Lake Michigan in trust for the people and these lands cannot be relinquished or given away by the State . . . neither the rivers and lake commission nor its successor, the department of purchases and construction etc., has any power or authority what so ever to issue a permit to any person to construct a pier wharf or other structure cut into the lake for the sole purpose of preventing erosion of the shore. Nor can any riparian owner be granted a permit to build piers, wharfs or other structures cut into the lake for the purpose of making land or increasing the boundary of his premises." The duty to zealously guard the shores of Lake Michigan is imposed upon the Department of Purchases and Construction etc.

The militant taxpayers also point out that now a Lake County citizen, Mr. Benjamin Miller, of Libertyville, is the head of the Illinois Waterway construction department and consequently they expect the shores of Lake Michigan in Waukegan to be zealously guarded without the necessity of the taxpayers entering the courts to protect the public interest in Lake Michigan in Waukegan soils that have been used for illegal bulkheads, and fills behind these bulkheads.

Mr. Stripe, in communicating for the taxpayers to the State of Illinois stated that this bulkhead is at least twenty-

TAXPAYERS TO SIFT TAX REDUCTIONS

Will Ask Publication of Data Used by Board of Review

ALFORD'S VALUATIONS BELIEVED TO BE JUST

The organized militant taxpayers caused the election of Russ Alford, their vice president, as Waukegan Township assessor. Mr. Alford lowered numerous valuations upon small homes and increased substantially the valuations upon some industries, among them the John-Manville factory and the Waukegan Generating Company.

The board of review has just reduced Mr. Alford's valuations some $2,007,050 of which $1,774,000 went to the generating company which was represented by attorneys Edwards and Black before the board.

The board cut the Munville valuation $138,150.

The Johnson Motor company's valuation was reduced to $72,470 from Mr. Alford's $107,370.

The envelope factory got a small cut of $3,000.

The board of review consists of the Chairman of the Board of Supervisors, William J. Obee of Highland Park and two appointees of County Judge Persons, John O. Keefe and Mrs. D. G. White.

It is reported that the militant taxpayers are going to ask for the publication of all the documents and data used by Mr. Alford in making the assessor's valuations and by the Board in reducing these valuations on the corporations, especially the company whose new generating plant, not operating, was reported by the local press as not being assessed. The organized small taxpayers do not understand the system or principle used in suffering property to escape taxation just because it is not in use, and because a method method like that would allow innumerable abandoned farms to escape all taxation during a period when they cannot be made to raise sufficient to pay taxes and unused boom-time subdivisions would also secure an exemption that would cast a heavy burden on developed property.

Total Cut for County:

The total valuation cut for all of Lake County is $2,777,265 of which $2,007,050 was Mr. Alford's valuations that increased taxes for electric utility, asbestos trust, and motor plant largely.

The total valuation for the county is $103,604,665, a drop of about 2.61 per cent. against much larger cuts in most down-state counties, where 10 per cent. featured some counties for a reduction on city property and 16 per cent. on farm holdings.

The Shore Towns' valuations in detail are:

	1930	1931
Benton	$2,077,135	$1,876,600
Waukegan	$4,706,470	$4,664,465
Shields	$6,141,495	$6,240,088
Deerfield	$3,304,930	$2,599,670
W. Deerfield	$3,225,675	$3,035,930
Zion	$3,360,570	$3,141,710
Wm. Harbor	$649,370	$560,350
City of Wauk	$23,062,075	19,954,610
Lake Forest	$13,401,185	$13,471,160
Highland Pk.	$15,799,530	17,098,100

The above figures include the railroad, telephone and telegraph assessments.

URGE COLLECTION OF WATER BILLS

In order that the water board will have money to make the payments on bonds for waterworks No. 2 when due, the taxpayers would suggest that the water board make a drive to collect unpaid bills from prominent citizens.

Figures for Cities are as follows:

	1930	1931
L. J.	$45,641	F. T. F.	$73,33
G. V.	$26,46	L. J.	$35,47
S. L. K.	$37,64	S. M.	$31,22
E. B.	$49,05	L. J.	$23,78
R.	$38,33	D. G. O.	$27,94
P.	$38,67	N. & N.	$29,74
B. Z.	$122,79	E. F.	$90,75
B. C.	$79,36	J. E.	$64,92
J. P. W.	$61,82	A. J. C.	$78,12
P. W.	$50,52	W. S. W.	$545,21
P.	$22,06	H. Y.	$41,25
A.	$1,404,42	Y. M. C.	$1,404,42
Grade School	$2,505	Total	$5,554,40

While this sum of $5,500 owed by a few delinquents is only about one-third of the taxpayers' money belonging to waterworks No. 2 which is locked up in the busted Waukegan National bank, a drive for this and other delinquents will help, especially the payment of militant organized taxpayers who plan to ultimately protect the public interests regardless of the opposition to the public rights outlined by the Attorney General.

Having caused or suffered bulkheads to be put in the submerged soil of Lake Michigan, the then riparian owners along Lake Michigan have lost all riparian rights outside of the bulkhead and instead either artificial accretions have been caused by the fills made for a roadway, protection of lands and gas pipes, the contention of militant organized taxpayers who plan to ultimately protect the public interests regardless of the opposition to the public rights outlined by the Attorney General.

The militant taxpayers also point out that now a Lake County citizen,

Mr. Benjamin Miller, of Libertyville, is the head of the Illinois Waterway construction department and consequently they expect the shores of Lake Michigan in Waukegan to be zealously guarded without the necessity of the taxpayers entering the courts to protect the public interest in Lake Michigan in Waukegan soils that have been used for illegal bulkheads, and fills behind these bulkheads.

Mr. Stripe, in communicating for the taxpayers to the State of Illinois stated that this bulkhead is at least twenty-feet off shore, hence in the navigable waters of Lake Michigan and in the submerged soil; the particular part of the bulkhead system in question being the one that the gas company put in to protect its submerged pipes.

Spades are trumps and Z is in the lead. How can Y-Z play the hand so that they can win four of the five tricks against any defense?

Solution: Z should lead the jack of spades and overtake in Y's hand with the queen. Y should now lead the jack of clubs and the only trick that A can win is the top trump. This play of overtaking partner's lead when holding a set-up suit comes up very frequently and should be thoroughly understood.

ON WITH THE DANCE

THREE of the country's most famous dance orchestras will be heard on the programs of one sponsor, beginning November 3rd, when the Lucky Strike Dance Hour inaugurates one of the most unusual and elaborate presentations of dance music in the history of radio broadcasting. Wayne King and His Orchestra, broadcasting from Chicago, will lead on Tuesday evening, November 3rd, playing from 10 to 11 E.S.T., over a nationwide NBC network. On Thursday evening, at the same time, Andy Sammella and His Orchestra take the air from New York, and Saturday evening will find the music of the Lucky Strike Dance Hour in the hands of Gus Arnhem and His Orchestra, playing from the Cocoanut Grove in the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles. These three orchestras will alternate for the first week, after which other dance orchestras of equal prominence will follow them. It was also announced that plans are now being made to broadcast orchestra from Europe on short wave, re-broadcasting their music as features of future Lucky Strike Dance Hours.

HintsVitamins are Nothing More Nor Less than "It"

The fact that canned goods retain a greater proportion of their vitamins than foods cooked in open containers and exposed to oxygen by the ordinary home methods has been fully demonstrated by many great scientists. But what are vitamins? Vitamins are "it"—that popular word first used in its modern quoted meaning by Elmer Glyn.

"It" a Definite Thing

When you say that an actress or a reigning beauty has "it," you have paid her the highest compliment contained in our modern vocabulary. "It" is that which without there can be no growth, success, or even life. There is nothing like "it."

Vitamins are just as real as sugar or salt, dieticians say. The chemist knows what they are and even though they have no form, they are definite to him. Food would be of no use to us if it did not contain vitamins.

In these days when we are evaluating vitamins so ardently it is valuable to know inexpensive ways in which to obtain our full vitamin quota. Tomatoes have become famous for their vitamin content, and tomato juice is now fed to babies by the doctor's orders. Here are some delicious and inexpensive tomato dishes each of which will serve four people:

Macaroni and Tomato:

Boil one-half package macaroni until tender, then drain. Simmer for ten minutes the contents of a No. 2 can of tomatoes with one-half bay leaf, two slices onion, one teaspoon sugar, and salt and pepper to taste; remove bay leaf and add to the macaroni. Costs about 15 cents.

Clam and Tomato Broth:

Combine half the contents of a No. 2 can of clam broth with one 10-ounce can of tomato juice, and season to taste with salt and pepper, celery salt, tobacco sauce and one teaspoon lemon juice. Heat to boiling. Costs about 25 cents.

Stewed Tomatoes and Celery:

Combine the contents of a No. 2 can of Tomatoes with one-half cup diced cooked celery, salt, pepper, one tablespoon butter and one teaspoon sugar. Simmer gently for a few minutes. Costs about 17 cents.

Baked Tomatoes and Peppers:
Shred one green pepper and place with the contents of a No. 2 can of Tomatoes. Add one spoon salt and a few grains pepper. In a buttered baking dish, cook in a moderate oven until peppers are tender. Add one tablespoon of butter and serve. Costs about twenty cents.

Teach Your Child to Eat Rice Flakes

Have you ever tried to coax a child to eat vegetables? Just why young appetites should refuse this necessary part of the diet no one knows. But thousands of mothers do know that they have overcome one of their greatest meal-time problems by serving delicious rice flakes in various forms.

Besides being a nourishing energy food, rice flakes are peculiarly valuable in the diet of children, because they furnish the effect of vegetables in promoting regular health habits. Their general roughage is just what nature intended for the growing child. Here's a novel recipe in which these healthful rice flakes may be served to round out the diet of skin-and-bone youngsters:

Rice Flakes Waffles: — 1½ cups Rice Flakes, 1½ cups milk, 2 tablespoons sugar, 4 teaspoons baking powder, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon melted butter, 1 egg. Mix and sift flour, sugar, baking powder and salt. Beat egg well thoroughly, add milk, and then add to dry ingredients, beating thoroughly. Add melted butter, and fold in stiffly beaten egg white. Add Rice Flakes, and bake in a hot waffle iron.

Packaged Foods Will Lighten Your Burden

If one is to have leisure for friends, and enjoy necessary outside interests and activities, it's imperative that she take every possible shortcut in the routine program of three-meals-a-day.

Fortunately, every woman today is able to purchase packaged foods of almost endless variety. And with a well equipped shelf of those "emergency foods", she is prepared to serve even elaborate meals in short order.

Below is helpful list of foods that should be kept on the supply shelf: Olives, canned soups, canned fruits, canned chicken, pimento and cream cheese in glasses, canned vegetables, mayonnaise, salad dressing, olive oil, vinegar, prepared puddings, mincemeat, packaged cakes and crackers, cheese, cooked cereals, and sandwich spreads.

Indians' Use of Dogs

Excavations of Indian mounds in California have disclosed bones of a very powerful breed of dog, as well as the little camp dogs. It is thought by scientists that the Indians may have used the larger dogs for hunting purposes before they undertook to break in the wild horses.
